TWO INDIANAPOLIS MEN INDICTED FOR METH TRAFFICKING

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that ARMANDO CORREA, 25, Indianapolis, Indiana, and MARIO ZAMORA, 23, Indianapolis, Indiana were indicted by a federal grand jury sitting in Indianapolis. CORREA and ZAMORA were charged with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine. CORREA was also charged with two counts of distribution of 50 grams or more of methamphetamine and one count of possession with intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine. ZAMORA was also charged with one count of distribution of 50 grams or more of methamphetamine.

-More-

CORREA and ZAMORA were arrested last month following an investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Indianapolis Police Department. CORREA and ZAMORA were observed by law enforcement officers distributing methamphetamine on the west side of Indianapolis. A search by law enforcement officers of CORREA's residence uncovered methamphetamine, marijuana being stored at CORREA's residence along with an undetermined amount of U.S. Currency.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Josh J. Minkler, who is prosecuting the case for the government, CORREA faces a maximum possible prison sentence of life imprisonment and a maximum possible fine of $4,000,000 for each of the four counts he is charged with. ZAMORA faces a maximum possible prison sentence of life imprisonment and a maximum possible fine of $4,000,000 for each count he is charged with.

An initial hearing will be scheduled in the near future before a U.S. Magistrate Judge in Indianapolis.

The indictment is an allegation only, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty at trial or by guilty plea.
